Dear Mr. Casey:

I want to thank you and your staff for the superb briefing program that was set up on 11 May for members of The National War College's elective course on the intelligence process. Planning for the program was handled through [redacted] of the Office of Training. The program included briefings by Mr. [redacted] of the DDI, [redacted] of the DDO and Mr. John McMahon, the Deputy Director.

The contributions of all were stimulating and informative. I was especially pleased that Mr. McMahon could participate in this final session of the course. In sum, the program was flawlessly executed and met our expectations fully.

I appreciate your support for an important aspect of The National War College's academic program.

Sincerely,

Lee E. Surut
Major General, USA
Commandant
